

MINNA PASILA

Contract and IPR specialist

BIOGRAPHY

Minna Pasila has years of experience in promoting innovation at the University of Applied Sciences.

She currently works in Xentre – Research and Education Unit for Business and Innovation at Xamk being responsible for contract management and innovation processes. Her duties include technology transfers as well as other type of utilization of research results and promotion of commercialization.

She holds a master's degree in Technology , Industrial Engineering and Management, from Lappeenranta-Lahti University of Technology .

In addition to IPR issues, her special interest is the environment and building a sustainable society.